Editorial Notes

The African Journal of Legal Research is published to encourage research within and outside Africa. The Journal receives papers from members of the Legal Profession in legal practice, in-house Counsel, other Industries and the Academia.

The AJLR met the requirements for Indexing by Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY) and has set standards to counter plagiarism through the use of Turnitin and other anti-plagiarism software. All these measures are geared towards enhancement of the quality of the articles. It has a wide coverage and standard contributions from diverse areas of law and research. The Journal is a contribution to contemporary issues in legal research, pedagogy and ongoing legal discourse, proffer solutions/suggestions to legal and social issues and ultimately bring about development and improvement on legal research in Africa and beyond.

Contributors are solely responsible for the views expressed in their articles and such views are not necessary those of the Institute of Legal Ethics and its Editorial Board and do not represent the publishers and printer for all intents and purposes.

Editor in Chief

Prof. Omoniyi Bukola Akinola, PhD

EDITORIAL GUIDELINES

1. Manuscripts submitted for consideration must not be under consideration or peer review or accepted for publication or published elsewhere and, if accepted, it should not then be published elsewhere in the same form of its publication in the AFRICAN JOURNAL OF LEGAL RESEARCH.
2. The authors' name(s) should appear centred under the title. Articles should be in Microsoft word format, 12 font size and 1.5 line spacing.
3. Manuscripts must be clearly written in UK English and should be submitted in electronic format in Microsoft Word to ajlreditor@africanjournaloflegalresearch.com
4. Submitted manuscripts will be subjected to plagiarism tests and compliance with the Guidelines of the Editorial Team. Authors agree to transfer the copyright of their works to the AJLR as the publisher through an executed Copyright Agreement.
5. Authors should strictly respect the intellectual property rights of other authors. Submitted works should not, to the best of author's knowledge, contain anything which is libelous, illegal or infringes on anyone's copyright or other rights.
6. Manuscripts should also be accompanied by an Abstract, which summarizes the Manuscript in not more than 250 words. The abstract should clearly summarise the manuscripts, research methodology adopted and state the manuscript's main argument and relevance to contemporary legal issues.
7. Manuscripts should be well referenced in automatically generated Arabic numbering footnotes (not endnotes) and must accord with the Oxford University Standard for the Citation of Legal Authorities (OSCOLA 4th edition) available at www.law.ox.ac.uk/oscola
8. Articles, case reviews and comments are published as received periodically.
9. All correspondences should be directed to the address stated below:
